ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This book can be credited to me because it bears witness to human limitations in understanding and expressing truth. Insofar as it is a scholarly achievement, it must be credited to God and his sustaining grace. Therefore my first and foremost gratitude goes to the Triune God, whom I have searched for while doing the research with a view to writing the current work.

My deepest thanks go to the members of the Senate of the Adventist Theological Institute, Romania, for their decision to have the Institute's financial support, which made the publication of this book possible.

My heartfelt thanks go also to Dr. Roberto Badenas, Education Director of the Euro-Africa Division, for kindly taking the time to write the Foreword.

From the list of helpers I cannot miss my beloved wife, Gréti, who has endured the challenges of not having a husband always available for pastimes together. Her fervent prayers, encouragement and love are very much appreciated. I also want to thank my son, Márk, for designing the book's cover. Special thanks are here expressed to Konrád, my youngest son, for proofreading the first chapter, as well as for producing the charts therein.

Last but not least, I wish to thank Ms Ruth Farrer for her invaluable help in proofreading the whole book.
